FOURTH PRELIMINARY DRAFT
WORKING PAPER
PARTIAL PROVISIONS

May 21, 1957

(f) (1) Each agrees to a prohibition from the use of nuclear weapons except: in individual or collective self-defense under Article 51 of the United Nations Charter when the armed attack against a member of the United Nations includes the use of nuclear weapons by the attacker, or the armed attack is of such a nature or magnitude that it cannot feasibly be repelled without the use of nuclear weapons in the judgement of the user.

(2) Upon the activation of this exception to the prohibition of use of nuclear weapons, an exception to the prohibition of use of nuclear weapons also applies within the terms of Article 51 of the United Nations Charter to all signators who have entered into collective security agreements with the user. Precautionary training of armed forces associated in collective security agreements under Article 51 of the United Nations Charter in the use of nuclear weapons, against such an eventuality is not prohibited.
